Wilmar's statement on our operations in Myanmar

Wilmar is present in Myanmar via joint ventures and investments. Through these businesses, we provide essential food items to the people of Myanmar. Throughout our business ventures and engagements, whether in Myanmar or elsewhere, we have endeavoured to conduct business in a responsible and ethical manner and contribute to the welfare of the country and its people.

Our commitment to respecting human rights is in line with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, as outlined in our Human Rights Policy¹ and Human Rights Framework². As part of this pledge, we are making efforts to ensure the safety of our employees within our business operations and continue to monitor developments in the region.

Like many other international companies operating in Myanmar, we are deeply concerned over the current situation there. Where possible and necessary, we strive to work with all relevant stakeholders in the hope that a peaceful resolution will be reached soon.
