Dear Sirs

Re : Gama group of companies

I refer to your letter of 18 June 2018 . Thank you for reaching out to us and giving us an opportunity to comment on a proposed Greenpeace International report on Wilmar's operations, ahead of its publication.

With regard to the statement in your letter that Wilmar International Limited ("Wilmar") and Gama should be considered as one group, I would like to point out that this is factually incorrect. Gama Group or Gama Corp is not a legal entity. It is a name given to a group of companies owned by Mr Ganda and his brother, Mr Martua Sitorus. Wilmar has no shareholding interest in any of the companies in this group, which for ease of reference, we will call them "Gama Corp". This is a fact that can be verified by Wilmar's auditors.

There is also no extensive overlap in management between Wilmar and Gama Corp or control between Wilmar and Gama Corp. Mr Martua Sitorus, who co-founded Wilmar with me, was never the CEO of Wilmar. Mr Sitorus, who is not related to me, was the Executive Deputy Chairman of Wilmar but ceased to be so on 1 April 2017, when he became a non-independent, non-executive director of Wilmar. Please refer to the attached Wilmar announcement dated 31 March 2017. Mr Martua Sitorus no longer exercises any executive function or responsibility in Wilmar.

Mr Martua Sitorus also ceased to be a substantial shareholder of Wilmar on 2 September 2016 when his shareholding interest in Wilmar dropped below 5%. Please refer to the attached Wilmar announcement dated 6 September 2016. Mr Sitorus currently holds a 1.82% interest only in Wilmar. Please refer to the attached Wilmar announcement dated 23 November 2017.

It is important to state that Wilmar has no control, management or otherwise, over the Gama Corp. Although Mr Hendri Saksti and Mr Darwin Indigo are senior executives of the Wilmar Group, they do not sit on the Wilmar Board, which is the body that sets the policy and overall direction for the Wilmar Group. Neither Mr Saksti nor Mr Indigo have decision-making power when it comes to Wilmar's sustainability policy. The fact that they are relatives of Mr Sitorus, does not mean that Gama Corp exercises management control over Wilmar or that Wilmar exercises management control over Gama Corp. Gama Corp and Wilmar operate independently of each other and consequently, Wilmar cannot be held accountable for the actions or non-action of Gama Corp. However to demonstrate how seriously we take this issue and to ensure strict compliance with our NDPE policy, Wilmar will set up a NDPE Action Committee in both Indonesia and Singapore to take and review decisions about suppliers and to report on progress with grievances. The Committee will be chaired by me and no person related to Gama Corp will be a member of the Committee to ensure 100% arm's length decision-making.

With regard to the purchase of palm oil from companies suspected to be affiliated with Gama Corp, we acknowledge that there should have been more stringent oversight on the ownership verification process in respect of these companies by Wilmar. Specifically with regard to the allegations of non-compliance by Gama Corp which was presented in a case study shared by Greenpeace in December 2017, we would like to make it clear that the 3 companies named, i.e. PT Graha Agro Nusantara, PT Agrinusa Persada Mulia, and PT Agriprima Cipta Persada, are not suppliers to Wilmar. We did not purchase palm oil from these companies. In compliance with our NDPE policy, we purchased oil only from companies who are in compliance with our policy but some of these companies were alleged to be affiliated with Gama Corp. We checked with our supplier, PT Ganda Sawit Utama and their response was that they are not linked to Gama Corp. Nevertheless, we initiated a meeting between a representative of Gama Corp and the NGO AidEnvironment on 30 April 2018. A formal letter was subsequently sent to Gama Corp, and 6 other supplier companies that were identified in the December 2017 case study as allegedly being linked to Gama Corp, requesting a full list of companies within Gama Corp, and that they commit immediately to a moratorium on land clearing activities and adoption of the NDPE policy. On 11 June 2018, all the companies responded positively with commitments. However, we are still awaiting the specific list of companies within Gama Corp as part of their action plan and application of the commitments.

We have been in intense communication with Gama Corp on their own NDPE commitment and have even asked our former COO, Mr Teo Kim Yong to assist them in this respect.

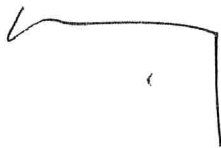

In order to be absolutely sure that there is no violation of Wilmar's NDPE policy, we have decided to cease sourcing from all the companies that we have a commercial relationship with that are allegedly associated with Gama Corp as listed in your letter, with immediate effect, until we receive satisfactory confirmation of ownership information. Wilmar will commit not to buy from any company that cannot prove to our satisfaction that they do not belong to Gama Corp.

Meanwhile, Wilmar continues to implement its NDPE policy and takes any non-compliance seriously. Based on information received via grievances and information from stakeholders, we have, up to 19 June 2018, logged 44 grievance cases publicly on our dashboard. Of these 44 cases, and not including the very recent suspension decision on Gama Corp, 10 grievance cases have resulted in suspensions of business relations. The remaining grievance cases are progressing with moratoriums in place (for deforestation cases), or are subject to time-bound action plans, and over which we are actively monitoring progress. For detailed information on our grievances, please refer to <http://www.wilmar-international.com/sustainability/grievance-procedure/grievance-list-with-progress-updates/>.

In 2013, Wilmar took the lead on the sustainability front by coming up with a NDPE policy. We were not compelled to do so, but decided to launch this initiative because we believe that sustainability is the only viable way to operate and grow the palm business. It is our intention to maintain our leadership position and you have my assurance that Wilmar will strictly enforce its NDPE policy going forward. We welcome dialogue with Greenpeace and any NGO to improve our NDPE implementation.

Yours faithfully
